

WORLD HISTORY

World History Subject Test Breakdown

AP European History Course

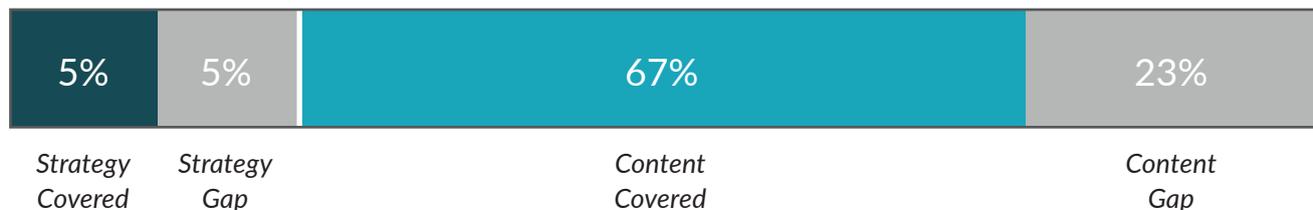

Strategy Gaps

- Answering fact-based multiple-choice questions
- Pacing
- Guessing penalty

Content Gaps

- Historical minutiae: people, legislation, events, literary/artistic works, and terminology
- All content related to other geographic areas: Asia, Africa, and the Americas
- Colonization from a non-Eurocentric viewpoint

AP World History Course

Strategy Gaps

- Answering fact-based multiple-choice questions
- Pacing
- Guessing penalty

Content Gaps

- Historical minutiae: people, legislation, events, literary/artistic works, and terminology
- Greater depth and focus on Prehistory - 1500 and 1900 - Present
- Greater depth and focus on Asian and European History

WORLD HISTORY

IB History (SL) Course

Strategy
Gap

Content
Covered

Content
Gap

Strategy Gaps

- Answering multiple-choice questions: fact-based and source-based (quotes, cartoons, maps, and graphs)
- Pacing
- Guessing penalty

Content Gaps

- Historical minutiae: people, legislation, events, literary works, and terminology
- All content related to topics (750 CE - Present) not selected as focus of IB course's World History Topics and Prescribed Subjects
- All content Prehistory - 750 CE

IB History (HL) Course

Strategy
Gap

Content
Covered

Content
Gap

Strategy Gaps

- Answering multiple-choice questions: fact-based and source-based (quotes, cartoons, maps, graphs)
- Pacing
- Guessing penalty

Content Gaps

- Historical minutiae: people, legislation, events, literary/artistic works, and terminology
- All content Prehistory - 750 CE
- All content related to topics (750 CE - present) not selected as focus of IB course's World History Topics, Prescribed Subjects, and Depth Studies